

Great Basin Basketmakers

Grant Application

Goals: The purpose of providing grants is to promote the study and preserve the traditions of basketry. GBB has set aside funds to award two annual grants for activities which may include: lectures, seminars, workshops with hands-on experience, publishing, or research projects. We will not fully fund all expenses. Grants will be approved/disapproved depending upon available funds.

Eligibility: Up to $150 is available to anyone who is a member in good standing and who has six months active membership in the group. "Active Membership" may be defined as participation in the activities of GBB, such as committees, programs and classes.
